(Ex. xiv. 15.) This language, spoken by the Almighty to Moses, and through him to the Israelites, may be regarded as both a reproof and a command, which the conduct of the children of Israel made necessary. They had just reached the Red Sea on their way from Egypt to Canaan; and with the sea in their front, impassable mountains on either side, and the Egyptians, from whom they were fleeing, immediately in their rear, their destruction seemed inevitable. In this the hour of their peril, instead of trusting God and calmly waiting his interposition as directed by Moses, they gave themselves to fault-finding, charging Moses with bringing them into the wilderness to die. Hence the reproof and command of the text - Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak to the children of Israel, that they go forward. About the Publisher Forgotten...
