ROM THE VERY BEGINNING there were two things wrong with my brother Joe. He was shy and he was stubborn. This is the way he did. If somebody tried to make him not shy, then he got stub born. Like the time when he was only four years old and he was supposed to be a butterfly in the Sunday school entertainment, and Miss Wilson tried and tried to push Joe out on the stage and make him flutter his wings, but he lay down on the floor and wouldn f t get up no matter how much the other butterflies stepped on him. And when he started to kindergarten and his teacher kept asking him to come up in front and tell the other children about his pets, Joe ran out of the room and hid downstairs in the boys toilet until they had to call the janitor to get him out. My mother had tried her best to make Joe not like he was, but when he was six years old she had to give up. She said she hoped he would outgrow it And she asked...
