Question 3 (.4)--As a general principle do you consider it is better to employ recent dental graduates, who are necessarily less efficient, at a smaller salary? or (B)--Men of established reputations and therefore more efficient, at a much larger salary? Four preferred experienced men: one preferred recent graduates, and two preferred experienced men as directors and recent graduates as subordinates. (C)-Why? Quotations. Hood Rubber Co.: I am in favor of hiring as good men as are available because, particularly in dental work, it is important to get the best available. R. K. LeBlond Machine Tool Co.: Cheap men cheapen service. Colgate Co.: We consider it better to have a dentist of experience as the director of the clinic, subordinates may very well be recent graduates. General Motors Corporation: They have given good service. The last named was the concern which preferred recent graduates for operators. Question 4 (.4)--What general means of education along Oral Hygiene, lines do you employ? Quotations. General Motors Corporation: Factory paper and bulletin boards. Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.: Printed information and short talks. Colgate Co.: General lectures to groups of employees and individual instruction at the clinic. Hood Rubber Co.: By means of our factory publication, bulletins, etc., we seek to give some education in Oral Hygiene. R. K. LeBlond Machine Tool Co.: Lectures, motion pictures, etc. Apparently most concerns employ some general means of education...
