The captain heard her in his room below, but pretended to be asleep when she came down as usual to lay out his clothes, for, although she insisted that her father should have Dave as a valet, she left him but little to do. Watching her from under the covers, the captain saw that she had left off the black snood and tied her hair with a band of rose-colored ribbon. Her lips were ruddy and her eyes alight: once or twice she laughed to herself. What high day or holiday is it, Jane? Oh, every day is a high day now! running to kiss him. I was just thinking how comfortable money is, and how glad I am that we have it, glancing about delighted at his luxurious toilet appointments before the low wood-fire. Then she spread out his dressing-gown and velvet smoking-cap, and eyed with her head on one side the fine shirt and its costly studs. Do you remember the rag-carpet in your room which we thought such a tri umph? and the old tin shaving-cup? Now, my lord, look out upon your estate! opening the window. Your musicians have come to waken you, and your servitors stand without, as Buff tapped at the door with hot water. He is as comfortable as a baby wrapped in lamb s wool, she thought as she ran down...
