D: A Discourse Preached at His Funeral, in the Presbyterian Church, Bridgeport, Conn; February 6, 1867 He being dead yet speaketh. - Hebrews xi. 4. We have met to pay our last tribute of respect to a great and good man. Few die whose life speaks with greater emphasis and solemnity after their death. My acquaintance with Dr. Hewit began in May, 1835 - nearly thirty-two years ago - just as I, at the age of twenty-two, was beginning to minister to the church in Fairfield, of which a few years previous, from January 4, 1818, to December 18, 1828, he had been the honored and beloved Pastor. This acquaintance soon ripened into the closest intimacy, which continued, with little interruption or abatement, through the almost score of years of my pastorate in a field, where I was at once his successor and near neighbor. We unbosomed ourselves to each other with all the mutual freedom and confidence, I was about to say, of brothers; but that...
